IN-PERSON WORKSHOPS

DAY 1

Dealer Technical Training

Give your customers what they want – knowledge. Product knowledge is a valuable skill. It can make or break a buying decision. Customers who come to you aren't just looking to make a purchase, they're looking for your expertise and enthusiasm to give them the certainty they need to make that purchase. Whether it's a pool pump, pool heater or pool cleaner, gain the product knowledge necessary to earn the trust of your customers and increase your sales of Zodiac branded products. Learn how our unique features truly benefit your customers and gain a better understanding of how you can provide them with the information they need to have the perfect pool experience.

DAY 2

Builder Technical Training

We build innovative pool equipment – you build innovative pools with it. Learn about the products we offer and how to best implement them into your designs. Your experience and knowledgeability are the cornerstone of your business, so set yourself apart with education that puts you at the forefront of your industry. This intensive workshop is designed to take your skill set to the next level, helping you become more efficient and effective with hands-on installation and operation training for a wide range of our products.

Expert or Advanced Technical Training

This workshop is designed for the seasoned pool pro. Experienced technicians can benefit from this intense hands-on training focused on advanced issues on a wide range of products.

“ [These classes] furthered my knowledge on how to fix things, without all the stress.
